

Brookfield Public Library

Division Of Responsibility Between Board And Librarian

Effective Date: 1/22/2003

Reviewed and Approved: 11/28/2007, 6/28/2017

General Policy

Under the Illinois Public Library Law (75 ILCS 5) the Board of Library Trustees is, among other functions, empowered to formulate “reasonable rules and regulations... in order to render the use of the library of the greatest benefit to the greatest number” and to “appoint a competent librarian and necessary assistants, to fix their compensation, to remove such appointees, and to retain professional consultants as needed.”

Thus, in defining and delineating the division of responsibility between the Board and the librarian, hereinafter referred to as the Library Director, the Board of Trustees of the Brookfield Public Library recognizes that the ultimate responsibility to the community to provide “the greatest benefit to the greatest number” rests with the Board. Policy determination is the Board’s power and duty. Management is the Library Director’s responsibility, for which he or she is responsible to the Board. The division and sharing of these responsibilities fall into various categories.
